

MAGDALEN COLLEGE SCHOOL

FOUNDED BY WILLIAM OF WAYNFLETE, 1480

WAYNFLETE ACADEMIC: GERMAN

Magdalen College School, Oxford, founded by William Waynflete in 1480 is one of the country's leading independent schools. Each year we employ a small number of graduates, doctoral and post-doctoral researchers in a part time capacity to share up-to-date, scholarly and expert knowledge with our very able pupils. Recent interns have found the role fits well alongside their current research commitments.

We are looking to appoint a Waynflete Academic in German for the duration of the school year 2019-2020. Candidates will need native or high-level proficiency in German, the ability to teach German Literature/culture to secondary pupils and a willingness to manage administration for the Oxford German Network.

The salary for Waynflete Academics is £21,000 per annum (full-time equivalent) and it is likely that the German Waynflete Academic would be appointed for the equivalent of about one day per week. The precise nature of the role will be shaped to fit the strengths of the candidate appointed, with other potential responsibilities including assistance with university preparation, offering enrichment activities for the most able pupils and arranging talks by visiting speakers.

Those interested should complete the application form for Teaching Staff, which is available via: <http://www.mcsoxford.org/senior-school/vacancies> and email this across with a cv and covering letter to the Recruitment Officer, Mrs Sarah Hunter(shunter@mcsoxford.org) as soon as possible.

Magdalen College School is committed to the safeguarding of pupils, and the successful candidate will be required to undergo statutory safeguarding checks before the commencement of his/her employment.
