

WAYNFLETE ACADEMIC: MUSIC

Magdalen College School, Oxford, founded by William Waynflete in 1480, is one of the country's leading independent schools. Each year we employ a small number of graduate or post-doctoral students who are looking to find temporary or part-time employment in the secondary education sector. Our Waynflete academics assist with academic or extra-curricular activities, and bring to our provision the most up-to-date, scholarly and expert knowledge, as well as a motivating presence, and the inspiration of the highest standards.

We are looking to appoint one full-time Waynflete Academic for Music from September 2021, and particularly someone who can assist with the performance elements of the department as well as teach some classroom lessons. This will be a fixed-term contract for the length of the school year 2021-2022.

The precise nature of the role will be shaped to fit the strengths of the candidate appointed, but the key roles are likely to include the following:

- Some Lower School Classroom teaching
- Aural and theory coaching
- Sectional rehearsals
- Concert management
- Assistance with aspects of departmental administration
- Assistance with musical trips
- Personal initiatives

Applicants should e-mail a copy of our teaching staff application form (available on the school's website - <https://www.mcsoxford.org/about-us/vacancies-->), along with a CV and a covering letter to: Sarah Hunter, Recruitment Officer: applications@mcsoxford.org. Please apply by midday, Friday 26th February. Interviews will be on an ad-hoc basis. There will be an advantage in applying early; but we appreciate that some applicants may not wish to commit themselves at this stage. Magdalen College School is committed to the safeguarding of pupils, and the successful candidate will be required to undergo statutory safeguarding checks before the commencement of his/her employment.
