Introduction from the Master, Helen Pike

Magdalen College School is a remarkable place. We are now well into our sixth century, and our former pupils include scholars, war heroes, musicians, Olympians, two Nobel Prize laureates, a Hollywood film director, and a saint. Our success in public examinations, in securing places at top universities, and in an astonishing array of extra-curricular pursuits ensures that we continue this proud tradition. We do so by nurturing the individual potential of each of our pupils, and above all we believe that learning is as fun as it is fulfilling.

William of Waynflete founded Magdalen College School in 1480: schoolmaster, bishop of Winchester and Lord Chancellor of England. Being of humble origins, Waynflete was determined that others of ability should be given the opportunity to learn, to serve and to prosper as he did. And so MCS offers a transformative education in our global university city, the community to which we contribute.

We attract and retain the best staff and MCS is a stimulating, welcoming and thriving environment in which both to learn and to work.

A lot happens at MCS. The various sections of our website (www.mcsoxford.org) including the recent News will give you an impression of our school.

Thank you for your interest.

H. L. Pike

The School

Magdalen College School, founded in 1480 by William of Waynflete, is one of the country's leading independent day school's. It is situated in an enviable location at the heart of Oxford beside the River Cherwell. Shaped by its Christian Collegiate foundation and links with the university city of which it is part, it aims to inspire in all its pupils a desire to learn, flourish and to serve.

The school will celebrate its 550th anniversary in 2030. The current generation of MCS staff and pupils wish to ensure that we shape a School that is able to flourish for at least another half millennium, and hopefully many more beyond. There are around 980 pupils, boys 7-18 and Sixth Form girls, and over 300 staff who learn and work on the school's central Oxford site.

The success of MCS is due in large part to the diversity of excellence of our pupils. Governors and successive Masters have worked hard to retain a broad mix of pupils. Having funds available for bursaries allows us to offer places to able pupils irrespective of their family circumstances.

The Waynflete Office

The Waynflete Office is the Development Office of Magdalen College School. The team is responsible for nurturing strong links with our MCS community, which includes alumni (Old Waynfletes or OWs), parents, former parents and staff, and for delivering an integrated programme of communications, events, fundraising activities and stewardship to keep them engaged with the school and promote a culture of philanthropy towards MCS. The community is very warm to the school and is incredibly supportive of bursaries.

The school's specialist archives staff, responsible for enhancing the collections of the school archive, are part of the wider Waynflete Office team. The Archivist works alongside an Art Archivist (p/t 0.2 FTE, term-time) and a Historian working on the Modern Records of the school. In addition, the Director of Alumni Relations has extensive knowledge of MCS during his decades as a teacher, which add to the expertise in developing and communicating the school's archive resources.

The Waynflete Office's fundraising priority is to help secure the future of MCS by raising funds for pupil bursaries. This has been part of the ethos of the school since its foundation. Many of the Old Waynfletes are supportive of this work as they were able to attend the school through the Direct Grant (11+) or Assisted Places schemes. This is why the work of the Waynflete Office and the Archives is so integrated and embedded in the overall mission of the school.

The Waynflete Office is one of the top school fundraising offices in the country, having delivered highly successful fundraising campaigns, including three Giving Days, and averaging over £1 million a year in donations since its establishment in 2015.

The Waynflete Office comprises six staff:

- Director of the Waynflete Office
- Director of Alumni Relations (part-time)
- Deputy Development Director
- Head of Development Services
- Head of Information Management (part-time)
- Communications and Events Manager

The Role

The Archive at Magdalen College School is an important part of the modern school. It is the only school archive accredited by the National Archive. The school's recent inspection report noted that pupils are proud of their school's history. Materials from the Archive are used in teaching, public events and for a pupil archive club.

This is an exciting time to take up the role of Archivist at MCS. The 550th school anniversary in 2030 provides the opportunity to communicate the history of the school through its historic collections and you will be part of planning for this, working closely with the Master, the Director of the Waynflete Office and distinguished external contacts of the school.

The post holder is required:

- To ensure appropriate current MCS material is kept and catalogued, working closely with the Compliance Officer to ensure archive material is retained in compliance with the MCS information asset and retention schedules when agreed;
- To review archive policies regularly to ensure they are fit for purpose;

- To catalogue appropriate archival material gifted to the school in line with the collecting policy and thank donors;
- To make the archives available to bona fide readers by producing archival material for consultation, supervising its use and providing advice and answer enquiries from pupils, staff and members of the public;
- To contribute to the activities in celebration of the 550th anniversary, fundraising and alumni relations, including photo research for publications, and displays for annual Old Waynflete and donor events;
- To work with the Bursar and Compliance Officer to develop policies on the retention and cataloguing of modern records since 1987;
- To arrange for all preservation and conservation work, liaising with external conservators as part of a rolling conservation programme, prioritising within a ring-fenced budget and bidding for additional funds as appropriate;
- To digitise archive material when necessary, and liaise with external digitisation firms on priority projects within the agreed budget;
- Monitor environmental conditions and integrated pest management in the archive strongroom and storage areas, liaising with colleagues when required;
- Maintain appropriate disaster planning.

In addition, the postholder will be expected:

- To maintain the public archive catalogue and content on the archive pages of the school website;

- To support fundraising activities and meet interested parties to strengthen the MCS Archives;
- To contribute to the collection of oral histories by initiating contact with interesting OWs and friends, and following up on events and meetings;
- To publicise the school's history and archives by means of talks, group visits and displays within school;
- To develop a system to initiate acquisitions through monitoring sales and auction sites to augment the school's historic collections according to the collecting policy;
- To establish a good working relationship with the school's Art Archivist.
- To establish good working relationships with Magdalen College archives staff and the wider archives community in Oxford and the school archives community nationally;
- To manage the delegated archive budget and contribute to the MCS Strategic Plan.
- To contribute to school and alumni publications as required.
